The 1951

VIRGINIAN

Dedication

TO a person whose happy diligence and bright smiles have always made the Post Office doubly attractive, and whose friendship we value, we dedicate this, the 1951 VIRGINIAN: Mrs. Margaret Cox.

JOIN us in a journey to Longwood, and view through these pages the work and play, the ordinary and the special events, and the friendly spirit which have endeared our college to every student. It is our hope that we have depicted our life here as it is.

THE STAFF

Longwood Pauses

The rush to classes, the bustle in the Post Office, the scramble to those meetings—how typical are these to all Longwood! But no matter how hurried we are here, there always seems to be time to pause for a friendly chat and a warm smile.

President of the College

A Message

FOR five years it has been my privilege to serve Longwood College.

I feel a deep sense of gratitude for the opportunity that has been mine to work for the advancement of the institution in order that it may be of maximum service to Virginia. The greatest satisfaction that has come to me has been the friendship of the students and their appreciation for the things that have been done to improve their opportunities and to add to their happiness.

I welcome this privilege to extend to each one of you my affectionate greetings and my good wishes for the years ahead.

The Classes

Senior History

"Dear Farmville, Longwood C.

Four years we've spent with thee—"

YES, four wonderful years of college life. We've made lasting friendships among the faculty as well as among the students. We've seen new vistas open up for us as we climbed the ladder of education. Each rung of the ladder furnished us with remembrances of many joys and a few hoped-to-be-forgotten sorrows. The last rung, our senior year, was our most memorable one. September arrived and found us teaching the freshmen and new students the rules and regulations of our school, which we had learned and respected for so long. Before we knew it, we were meeting in the Senior Rec to elect as our Circus Chairman and Queen our Betsy Wilson. After a mad scramble for pyramids, sphinxes, and mummies, we presented our final Circus skit, "A Night in Cleopatra's Court." How are you fixed for a record of winning four straight years? . . . Second place, that is.

The night before Christmas, and all through the dorm not a creature was stirring. They had all gone to the senior dance. With Jackie Moody as our chairman and Ann Nock as our honorary classman, we participated in our last class dance.

Again we assembled in the Rec to practice—this time for the song contest, which we won for the third straight year, thanks to Ann Burnette and Virginia Spencer.

To Dr. Brumfield, our friend and adviser for four short years, go our heartfelt thanks. We'll never forget Betsy Gravely, our president, who has guided us through the last three years at school, and our other officers: Jackie Moody, vice-president; Betty Jones, secretary; Ann Burnette, treasurer.

Junior History

HEADS and hearts high, the juniors look back upon dreams come true. Yes, we were the mighty juniors, now in Cunningham Hall, now breathless at the prospect of many added privileges. With "Tippy Toe" and "Happy Easter" mothering us, we gained a feeling of belonging.

And when the new freshmen came in, we were happy. What a bunch of Red 'n Whites this College sports! We were proved right when our freshman sisters took first in A K G circus, an almost unheard of achievement. We pushed our colors to the top when at the end of the Color Rush, the Red 'n White banner was hung in our honor.

We went home for turkey and all the trimmings, then back to three weeks of classes and senior dance. Christmas was here, a super vacation for everyone. Even though coming back meant exams, we were ready to get together with the favorite present—a ukelele.

Like a rocket taking off for the stars, we juniors soared into 1951. Our dance was a thrill to plan for. The Virginians provided "Stardust" for our lovely Queen of Hearts and her attendants. It was a dance "ne'er to be forgot," ending with a party at Longwood House. What a good feeling we had when Charlie Hop told us that our $142 put the Longwood March of Dimes drive on top!

When May Day arrived, there stood three of '52's beauties: Anne, Jean and Frances. Proud? Yes! The pageant and dance were a wonderful way to end the year. A farewell party said goodbye to our seniors, and we were off for home and the beach, looking forward to the year to come.

Sophomore History

"MIGHTY Sophomores!"

That's what we said as we entered Longwood for our second year. "It's good to be back," and "I've missed you all so much," were the familiar words we heard from everyone. Annex and Student rang with singing and laughter our first night back, but then classes started.

October came—Rat Day—and this time we were on the giving end. Did we have fun! As always when the day ended, we felt as if we were the "Rats" and not the "Ratters." After Rat Day our thoughts turned to Circus. We worked hard under the leadership of our co-chairmen, Barbara Caskey and Virginia McLean. We used as our theme, "Carnival."

Christmas came and more fun! "Charlie Hop" gave us a wonderful party. Oh yes, we mustn't forget how pretty the Annex Snow Queen looks. "Steck" was really in there!

After the holidays we settled down to present our Production, which was a great success. Our co-chairmen, Joan Steck and Barbara Caskey, worked hard to make it so. We presented sketches from four record albums: "The Mikado," "The Wizard of Oz," "Dance Fantasy" and "Showboat." Oh yes, Spike Jones and his City Slickers were there too.

May Day was the next event of the year. Four beauties represented our class: Margaret Taylor, Kitty Hamlet, Margaret Steele and Ann Murphy.

The year ended, one we'll never forget. Our officers were the following: Sarah Harvie, president; Betty Abbitt, vice-president; Anne Jones, secretary; and Dot Boswick, treasurer. We could never have managed without the help of Mrs. Slayton, and it wouldn't have been complete without our one and only "Charlie Hop."

Freshman History

SEPTEMBER—College—Longwood. This sequence echoed in the mind of each of us who entered as a freshman this year. Surely, we were a little frightened when the time came, but the warm welcome we received from the upper classmen quickly banished all our fears. After all, there were two hundred and twelve of us to stick together. Things really were not bad after all.

Our first task was to prepare our circus stunt. Mary Denny Wilson and Cleo Holaday were elected co-chairmen. Imagine our surprise and delight when our stunt, featuring King Cole's Court, won first place. That night all of us realized what a wonderful thing co-operation really was. We were proud.

At the next class meeting, Danville's own Mary Denny Wilson was elected president; Betty Islin, vice-president; Jean Hamilton, secretary; and Blanton Ferguson, treasurer. Paula Dovel and June Wimernment representatives. Our officers chosen, we could really get to work. After examinations, all our thoughts and energy were turned towards production. We worked to make it as good as that of the sophomores. Lynn Hill was chairman, and our theme was "A Dreamer's Holiday." Soon May Day was the main topic of conversation. How proud we were when Sylvia Reames and Peggy Jones became our May Court representatives! They looked beautiful.

Suddenly examinations were upon us again. These were not as frightening to us as those in January, because when we finished, we should be homeward bound. Everyone decided it had been a good year and that with some plans already made, next year would be even better. Some of us even shed a few tears over leaving old Longwood. But we were all smiles again, thinking about next year when we would be mighty sophomores.

Freshman Commission

THE Freshman Commission, as soon as it was organized, went to work. Its members, as representatives from the Freshman class to Y. W. C. A., led prayers and aided in the work of the organization. The officers were Cleo Holladay, president; Fifi Carter, vice-president; June Horton, secretary; and Nell Copley, treasurer; the representatives were Lou Beavers, Pat Altwegg, Betty Islin, Nancy Huff, Betty Lou Garrett, Dolly Horne, Sylvia Reames, Sally Smith, and Mary Denny Wilson.

When the seniors gave their dance, the Commission sold cokes and nabs during intermission. At Christmas time, the Commission, after hanging the green, decorated the tree in the Rotunda. The entire school gathered around the Christmas tree, and the Commission led the singing of the Christmas carols.

In February we had a coke 'n' nab party for our wonderful Big Sisters. With Maria, Westbrook, and others entertaining, the shindig was great.

We are also planning to welcome the incoming freshmen of next year and to impart to them some of the famous Longwood spirit.

Student Standards

Do you belong to many organizations? How many meetings do you have at the same time? Not more than one, we hope! When we began our work last fall, this was one of our major objectives—to keep meetings from conflicting. Another was to keep study hour free from all meetings.

As we mulled over the many problems that faced us, we were ever aware of our purpose: “to bring about a spirit of co-operation in the solution of student problems and to foster high standards of action and scholarship; to act as a clearing house for problems between the student body and the faculty or administration.”

Our lengthy discussion concerning “Rat Day” resulted in a recommendation to the Freshman Class that “Rat Day” be put on a higher plane. We also recommended that they make any other general improvements for the benefit of the freshmen.

The new Student Standards regulations regarding extra-curricular activities were put into effect this year and seem to be solving a few of the difficulties. The president of the Pan-Hellenic Association was asked to join our committee this year since some of our problems concern the sororities.

As we draw to a close another successful year of Student Standards, we want to thank our faculty members: Miss Bedford, Miss Burger, Miss Clarke, Mrs. Cover, Miss Gleaves, Miss Stubbs, and Dr. Swertfeger. They have guided us wisely and understandingly during the year.

Margaret Thomas served as chairman of the committee; Marian Beckner, secretary; Dolores Hoback, chairman of the calendar; and Jane Lyon, chairman of the committee on student standard regulations.

AGAIN we found ourselves dressed in white with a blue "Y" ribbon. Again we eagerly awaited the arrival of each new freshman. We remembered our first day at Longwood and our joy at seeing the friendly faces of the "Y" girls. After a few days of Freshman Club meetings, tours of the campus, Coke 'n' Nab parties and "just getting acquainted," the Big Sister-Little Sister reception was held in the Student Lounge. Then the little sisters met the faculty and upperclassmen.

Early in October, the cabinet held its annual Fall Retreat in the "Y" Lounge. Afterwards, we went out to Longwood for the night. We felt our retreat was a real success and looked forward to achieving our goals in the coming year. One major goal which was accomplished was the revision of our constitution. Also, in October the freshmen and all new students were formally installed in the "Y." It was a very impressive service, starting in the Methodist Church and closing in the Rotunda with the singing of "Y" songs and the repeating of the "Y" motto. During October also the "Y" brought Dr. J. Blanton Belk to our campus as its fall speaker, and we held the World Student Service Fund drive.

As Christmas drew near, we made plans for our annual spaghetti dinner, held in the Home Management House, which was gaily decorated for the festivities. We enjoyed the party very much. The "Y" tried to help the students obtain a fuller meaning of Christmas by having prayers centered around the Christmas theme, by conducting the traditional "Hanging of the Green," and by presenting the Christmas pageant, followed by White Christmas, to which every organization brought contributions.

We were fortunate to be represented by two of our members at the fourth National Assembly of the Student Christian Association held at Miami University from December 27 to January 2.

Our Religious Emphasis Week in February brought to our campus Dr. Theodore H. Evans of Charlottesville. The theme for the week was "The Future Is In Your Hands." Dr. Evans led open discussions and talked to us in chapel.

Throughout the year the "Y" was responsible for prayers, held in the Episcopal church every evening after dinner. The "Y" also helped the needy and worked with the welfare organizations of Farmville.

Under the efficient and capable leadership of our president, Virginia Spencer, the "Y" was successful in achieving its goals for the year. Virginia's helpfulness and cheery smile won a place in the hearts of all of us. With such a guide, the "Y" was able to carry on its fine traditions and complete a successful year.

BOBBIE POLLARD
President

"THAT will be three call downs and one week's campus!" yelled the hall president, as she jotted down names of members of these all-night bridge clubs. They were probably all Dean's list students, no less!

Too bad, girls, but then, your hall president was only trying to do her duty, as she kept in mind the purpose of the House Council: to set up and enforce the rules governing the dormitories. Yes, it has been one hectic year, breaking up all the nightly gab sessions, but it's been great, and we've all had fun.

We feel we have had a most successful year under the able leadership of Bobbie Pollard, who served as president; Ruth Gills, vice-president; Mary Crawford, secretary; and Ann Crowder, treasurer. Freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior house-presidents, always right on the job, were Mason Moore, Judy Cox, Maria Jackson, and Emma Mae Pittard, respectively. Working with these members of the House Council and the House Mothers have been those all-important hall presidents, whose duty it was to keep peace and quiet on their respective halls.

The House Council is indeed grateful to the college house-mothers and hostesses for all that they have done in helping us to uphold the ideals of our organization. They are Mrs. Eastham, Miss Hamner, Mrs. Slayton, Mrs. Tabb, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Holladay, and Mrs. Dudley.

Orchids should go to each and every member of the Longwood College student body, who, in cooperation with the House Council, did her part in upholding the dormitory rules and regulations and helped make this year one of the best we have ever had.

ON May 20 Pi Delta Epsilon celebrated its first birthday, and we felt quite justified in our pride in the year's achievements. For several years the students responsible for the campus publications had felt a need for an organization to coordinate their activities and to give recognition to those students who have devoted time and effort to the publications. The efforts of a small group were rewarded when Pi Delta Epsilon, a national honorary fraternity, accepted their petition for a chapter at Longwood. Now journalism has at Longwood its fraternity, an organization of the publications.

This year the organization really worked. Jean Smith was president; Fran Harper, vice-president; Mary Leigh Meredith, secretary; Millie Carter, treasurer; and Georgia Bailey, historian. Other members of the group were Grace Thompson, Nellie Hart, Betty Spindler, Mr. T. A. McCorkle, and Dr. Marvin Schlegel. On October 12 the group extended invitations of membership to those who had served notably on the three publications. The following were duly initiated: Helen Agnew, Shirley Atkinson, Flora Ballowe, Betty Scott Borkey, Helen Connelly, Mary Crawford, Sara Creger, Jeanne Gilman, Maria Jackson, Charlotte K. Jones, Martha Kitchen, Romine Mahood, Lucy Jane Morton, Peg Peery, Polly Powers, June Raines, Lester Smallwood, Mary Jo Smith, and Betsy Wilson. Also for their unfailing interest and assistance, honorary membership was extended to Mr. Boyd Coyner, Dean William Savage, and Mr. Harry Lancaster.

The first project undertaken by Pi Delta Epsilon, the compilation and publication of the student directory, proved successful.

Toward the end of April, our first year of activity was drawing to a close. To finish it with a flourish, we celebrated with a banquet at Longwood.

The Rotunda

WITH the throngs of tearful, fearful freshmen arriving September 17 were an eager handful of sun-tanned journalists. Bursting with enthusiasm, these would-be Horace Greeleys took to their typewriters and pens. Volume 30, Issue No. 1 of the Rotunda was on hand to greet the upperclassmen as a result.

Under the regime of "Little" Smith and "Emul" Meredith, and with the special aid of Mary Jo Smith, managing editor, the college weekly began a busy winter. With an expert ability for scaring away the creditors Helen Connelly struggled valiantly to keep the Rotunda out of the red and on the Wednesday supper tables. Never overlooking the possibilities of a libel suit, the editors conferred frequently with incomparable Dr. Marvin Schlegel, who undertook the strenuous task of adviser to the publication.

Under Ginny McLean, news editor, reporters scurried about the campus, uncovering the passing events of campus life. The feature department under Betty Jane Stoots covered everything from hanging cadavers to student teaching. Readers voiced their opinions through Martha Kitchen in the Cogitations and Steck frequently "stuck her neck out." Lou Jamison and Lester Smallwood periodically reviewed local sports issues and kept up with the current color-cup standings. Bunny Gibson and her weekly news column served as a bridge between college life and the world beyond. Betsy Wilson struggled to keep up with rings, pins and wild, wild weekends; Peg Peery made good use of her camera.

You read the Rotunda each Wednesday night, thanks to Grace Thompson, head of the circulation department, who saw to it that you had one to read, and Polly Powers, advertising manager, who hounded Main Street establishments until they came through.

No longer tanned, no longer bursting with enthusiasm but wiser and more experienced, the staff marked June 4 as the end of a year of achievement.

The Colonnade

"HAIL to everyone connected with Longwood College. May the Joan of Arc spirit be yours always!" On this inspirational note, Edith Duma, editor-in-chief of Longwood's literary magazine, opened the foreword of our November issue. Just as it seemed fitting to choose Joan of Arc as the embodiment of the highest ideals of womanhood, we on the staff thought it appropriate that we choose "Joan of Arc" as a theme for the first Colonnade of the year. One of the highest aims of the Colonnade and its staff is the representation in prose and poetry, in art and comic-relief, in style and form, of the personality and spirit of Longwood College.

With this goal in mind, the members of the staff and the board of contributors worked long hours to make the Colonnade's three issues publications of which we could be proud. Maria Jackson served as managing editor. Frances Harper, as business manager, and her assistants did a good job in the business department. Betsy Wilson served as essay editor. Sara Creger, in the capacity of review editor, turned our busy thoughts to the latest books. June Raines and Patty Walker served as advertising and circulation managers respectively. Joan Prichett's well-known two-page spread depicting campus life gave us a few tips.

In September, Nancy Garbee, our short story editor, announced the beginning of the annual short-story contest, and posters on every bulletin board asked for literary attempts from the student body. The following week, the Rotunda printed the names of the board of judges for the contest. Miss Lucille Jennings, Miss Carrie Sutherlin, Miss Helen Draper, and three students served us in that capacity, and, judging by the results, served us well. Lester Trout won first prize with "One Way Home"; Cleo Holladay took second prize for her story "The Persecuted," and Sally Brickman was awarded third prize for "The Friends."

Our "big first" issue looked good. Lucy Jane Morton designed a cherry-red and white cover using the "listening statue" of Joan of Arc as the model for her illustration. In "The Story Behind the Statues," Betty Lou Harman told how the statues of Joan of Arc in the Rotunda and on the Colonnade came to be placed on our campus. The November issue also printed "One Way Home," aptly illustrated by Lucy Jane; "I Remember," a charming autobiography by our former French exchange-student, Suzanne Girard; and "It Happens to Every Freshman," by Bessie Matthews.

The two successive issues contained, among other fine contributions, the second and third prize-winning short stories and the announcement of the results of the annual poetry contest conducted by our able poetry editor, Flora Ballowe.

Without the constant assistance and timely advice of our advisers—Mr. M. Boyd Coyner, Miss Lucille Jennings, Dr. Marvin Schlegel, and Miss Ann Ross—we could never have made this year the success that it was. We thank them all.

The Virginian

WITH Charlotte King Jones as editor and Mr. Mac as adviser, how could the 1951 VIRGINIAN help being good! Yes, these were the two who in September started us on the long, hard, happy road to producing the yearbook of Longwood College.

How well we remember the first meeting! The photographer was coming to take individual pictures. Eager to begin working, Betty Scott Borkey, photographic editor, had us sign up to sit with Mr. Dudley. For the next few days our time was well spent in rushing from classes to second-floor Rotunda. The 1951 VIRGINIAN was under way.

Subscriptions are always a matter of concern for the annual staff. This year was no exception. Many were the nights that we canvassed the dormitories; many were the nights that we sat at the table in the hall selling subscriptions. To Georgia Bailey, business manager, and Mary Crawford, her assistant, are due many laurels for handling the money. When November 15 arrived, we were exhausted, but our quota of annuals had been sold.

In October, Charlotte and Georgia represented us at the Virginia Inter-Collegiate Press Association held in Lexington, Virginia. When they returned, their notebooks were filled with many helpful suggestions.

The months ahead consisted of making decisions and putting our plans into operation. How excited we were to learn that green and white would adorn the 1951 VIRGINIAN! Now we had expert and artistic help—Miss Bedford, our art adviser.

She and Bunny Ricks, art editor, went to work, and when their job was completed, we could only say, "Well done!" In November the dummy arrived and pleased us greatly.

After Christmas vacation we returned to find that the pictures had been returned from the studio. Each had to be trimmed, numbered, and mounted. Barbara Brown, Vera Bryant, Jean Partridge, and Betty Johnson gave of their talents to this worthy cause.

Soon another tedious task was upon the shoulders of our literary editor, Nell Dalton. All the articles had to be written and correctly typed by Kakie McCready, Edith Duvall, Polly Brothers, and Gerry Newman. Again we had timely assistance from Miss Foster, our literary adviser.

We would like to give a hearty "thank you" to someone whose suggestions, advice, and assistance contributed greatly to the success of our annual. Without you, Mr. Mac, the staff would have been lost. Your tricks of the trade saved us many, many hours of hard work, and your guidance and cheerfulness inspired us all.

In the months which followed, Peg Peery, our student photographer, was frequently seen snapping pictures of all unknown "Longwoodites." Peggy Harris, associate editor, was busy, also, collaborating last-minute details with Charlotte.

May was soon upon us, and the annuals arrived. We could tell that the seniors and sophomores were especially pleased with the color. So were we. We were happy and proud that we had had a part in bringing "our" annual to Longwood.

Alpha Kappa Gamma

ALPHA Kappa Gamma is an honorary society formed for the purpose of recognizing students who have shown themselves outstanding in constructive leadership.

The Joan Circle had for its capable advisers the following: Miss Burger, Miss Stubbs, and Mrs. Tibbs. The officers for this year were Romine Mahood, president; Mary Crowder, vice-president; Helen Agnew, secretary; and Betsy Gravely, treasurer. Virginia Spencer and Ann Lynch were the other members when school opened.

At the beginning of the year our circle sponsored a juke-box dance, the money from which was presented to the Dean of Women for the purpose of buying small but needed articles for the school.

Our annual convention was held at the University of South Carolina. Delegates to the convention were Helen Agnew, Mary Crowder, Betty Spindler, and Romine Mahood.

In October our main project of the year was carried out with much success with Ann Lynch acting as general chairman of circus. "The Mardi Gras" was the theme. Betsy Wilson was elected queen with her attendants Maria Jackson, Barbara Caskey, and Sylvia Reames, each representing her respective class.

Later on in the year we tapped Ann Burnette, Sue Brewbaker, Charlotte K. Jones, Maria Jackson, Mary Leigh Meredith, Jean Smith, Betty McRee, and Miss Virginia Wall. Two more tappings were due during the year.

To foster high ideals, to promote coordination of various college activities, and to preserve the ideals and traditions of the college—these are the purposes of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

Kappa Delta Pi

KAPPA Delta Pi, national honorary society for juniors and seniors excelling in the fields of education, has its Beta Epsilon chapter on our campus. The fraternity seeks always to encourage high professional, intellectual, and personal standards. The Beta Epsilon chapter was founded in 1928, replacing Pi Kappa Omega, which was founded in 1918.

With Hilda Bauserman as president, Alma Bedinger as vice-president, Polly Powers as secretary, Emma Mae Pittard as treasurer, and Mary Leigh Meredith as historian-reporter, Kappa Delta Pi began its year. Dr. Ethel Sutherland placed a guiding hand upon the prow of our ship of education.

The Kadelpians sailed right into the important business of recognizing those students whose ability in the field of education has been outstanding. Billie Marie Wood, Vera Bryant, Anne Lawrence, and Ruth Lacy had been invited to membership during the summer session and were recognized at the first fall meeting.

In the fall Georgia Bailey, Flora Ballowe, Mildred Blessing, Betty Scott Borkey, Harriet Butterworth, Laura Lee Fritts, Nancy Garbee, and Bonnie Gerrells were among those invited to membership. Norma Gladding, Sarah Graham, Betty Lou Harman, Jack Huegel, Maria Jackson, Katharine McCready, Ned Orange, Mary Jo Smith, Mary Frances Spurlock, Pat Tuggle, and Martha Alice Wilson completed our roster for the session.

The festive air of our annual Christmas banquet, held in the Tea Room, took us safely through exams. Once again, at a very special tea-reception in the spring, we honored the freshmen and sophomores who ranked in the upper quartile of their classes.

With pride in our successful year we gaily anticipate the future, resolving that as Kappa Delta Pi's we will remember that only the educated should educate.

Beorc Eh Thorn

BEORC Eh Thorn, the English honor society on the Longwood campus, was founded here in October, 1935. The three old English runic letters adopted for the name symbolize to its members the study of literature, the inspiration of creative writing, and the discipline necessary to achieve literary expression.

At our March meeting Mr. James Grainger, founder of Beorc Eh Thorn and former head of the Department of English, acquainted the new members with the foundation and traditions of our organization. In May our annual picnic was held at "Buffalo," Mr. Grainger's country home.

This time as usual Mrs. Grainger had planned a picnic that was happy and very enjoyable.

This year, John Cook served as president; Page Joyner, vice-president; Charlotte Williams, secretary; and Jean Smith, treasurer. The following were welcomed in the spring as our new members: Betty Lois Baker, Sally Brickman, Vera Bryant, Irene Bunting, Frances Everett, Branchy Fristoe, Dolores Hoback, Ann Lawrence, Ann Norman, Helen Smith, Virginia Spencer, Elizabeth Stone, Betsy Wilson, Ruth Elizabeth Wilkinson, and Billie Marie Wood.

PI Gamma Mu is the national social-science honor society on our campus. Our group, known as the Virginia Gamma Chapter, was founded at our college in 1927 by Dr. Walmsley, Professor Emeritus. The purpose of this organization is to encourage young men and women in the scientific study of all social problems and to promote co-operation between the several branches of social science. Our group invites as its members seniors and juniors who have shown outstanding interest and ability in the field of social science and who rank high in scholarship. Among those we were happy to welcome as our new members this fall were the following: Lauralee Fritts, Virginia Spencer, Betty Lois Baker, John Cook, and John Huegal.

We chose as our general theme this year a topic of vital importance to everyone—the United Nations. We tried to enrich our knowledge of this organization in order that we might better understand its place in world events.

The annual spring banquet was held at Longwood House. We were happy to have Dr. Walmsley, the founder of our chapter, to join us. This affair brought a most delightful close to the school year.

Dr. Schlegel again served as our sponsor, endearing himself to us all by his loyalty and cheerful advice. Our officers for the year were the following: president, Edith Duvall; vice-president, Rena Mae Hayes; secretary, Frances Everett; treasurer, Anne McMullan; reporter, Betty Lois Baker.

Granddaughters Club

THE Granddaughters Club was established for the purpose of bringing together all girls whose mothers or grandmothers attended Longwood College. The members help the alumnae secretary in many activities and also work to interest high-school students in Longwood College and entertain them while visiting on the campus. In the fall thirty new members joined and were entertained at a welcoming party. Later in the year, they were initiated at a solemn ceremony followed by a social.

The officers for the year were as follows: president, Nancy Walker; vice-president, Betty Abbitt; secretary, Margaret Taylor; treasurer, Polly Brothers; and reporter, Mary Winston Johnson. Through their capable leadership the organization successfully assisted in celebrating Founders' Day. We helped with the coffee, sponsored by the Farmville Alumnae Chapter, and also acted as hostesses for the week-end. It was fun showing the guests around the buildings and listening to the stories of the good times they had while here in college. Some of them knew our mothers, a fact which, of course, endeared them to us. Some of the other activities were being hostesses for the Alumnae Council, which met in the fall, and participating in the Circus. In the spring, the members of the club gathered for a picnic at Longwood Estate. What a wonderful time we had!

The interest and assistance of Miss Wall, our adviser, contributed greatly to a most successful year.

THE Dramatic Club began the year under the direction of Mr. Alec Finlayson. In the fall, we presented "The Madwoman of Chaillot" with Cleo Holladay in the lead. We enjoyed this presentation so much that we decided to present another play. Early in February we began rehearsals for "As You Desire Me."

Mary B. Smith was president; Nancy Garbee, vice-president in charge of production; Jeanne Gilman, vice-president in charge of programs; Helen Tanner, secretary; and Betty Scott Borkey, treasurer. Mary Crawford, Edith Kennon, Lucy Jane Morton, Harriet Butterworth, Barbara Caskey, Margaret Turner, Amanda Wright, Betsy Hankins, Donna Kunkler, and Claudia Bradshaw served as committee heads.

Future Teachers of America

OUR J. L. Jarman Chapter of Future Teachers of America seeks to create interest in professional leadership, to further activities and services of the National Education Association, to study the traditions and practices of the teaching profession, and to develop in the members those powers and qualities recognized as desirable assets of professional teachers.

Our first event of the year was a reception given in October for all the student teachers and supervisors. This enabled us to become better acquainted with each other.

In November, our membership increased when we initiated twenty-one new girls into our group, and again in the spring, when we invited more girls to join us. These were selected from each department in the college. In order to become a member of Future Teachers of America, a student must be recommended by the head of her department and sanctioned by the chapter members.

One of our goals for the year was to initiate high-school Future Teachers of America Clubs. One club from Randolph-Henry High School visited our campus in January in order to learn more about the organization of F. T. A.

Dr. J. P. Wynne, our capable and faithful adviser, led our group in helpful discussions of such problems as service projects for the chapter and attitudes that people hold toward fundamentals of education. The officers of the J. L. Jarman Chapter this year were the following: Patty Walker, president; Dee Hoover, vice-president; Max Acree, secretary; Kathryn Terry, treasurer; Lillie Lankford, librarian; and Dr. J. P. Wynne, adviser. We have enjoyed our year's work together.

Association of Childhood Education

THE Association of Childhood Education is an organization for those people who are interested in the education of children. This organization was formed in 1930 by the merging of two organizations of teachers of young children, the International Kindergarten Union and the National Council of Primary Education.

The purposes of this organization are to work for the education and well-being of children; to promote desirable conditions, programs, and practices in the elementary school; to raise the standard of preparation and to encourage continued professional growth of teachers and leaders in this field; to bring into active cooperation all groups concerned with children in the home, the school, and the community; and to inform the public of the needs of children and the necessary adjustments of the school program to fit these needs. To achieve these purposes the Association of Childhood Education is guided by a philosophy of education which is flexible and responsive to human needs in a changing society, as related particularly to children and to the preparation of teachers.

Our programs this year were based on a problem in which we were all interested: student teaching and its responsibilities. Miss Lucy Adams, principal of the Farmville Elementary School, gave us a very interesting talk on the student teacher's part in the elementary-school program. We also had some round-table discussions in which the problems in student teaching were discussed.

In October and March we initiated junior and senior elementary majors into our organization. We were glad to have them with us. Our officers this year were Lillie Lankford, president; Joyce Adams, vice-president; Helen Smith, secretary; and Mary B. Smith, treasurer. These officers, with the help and suggestions of our adviser and friend, Miss Alice E. Carter, led us through a successful and enjoyable year.

The Eastern Shore Club

BETWEEN the Atlantic Ocean and the Chesapeake Bay, lies a small strip of land known as the Eastern Shore. It is small in size but large in the hearts of residents and visitors, who can never forget the beating of the surf and the sound of wind rustling through swaying pine trees.

So that we Eastern Shore girls here at Longwood could keep up on the latest news from home and just get together for fun, we formed a club whose purpose was also to interest high-school girls from the Eastern Shore in coming here.

This year we added several new and charming members: Nancy, Frances M., Ann, Kitty Beale, and Letitia. Our membership also comprised Frances T., Norma, Sue, Frances S., and Billie Jane. Our return was somewhat saddened by the loss of our kind and generous sponsor, Miss Craddock, but with the aid of our new members we planned and carried out an eventful year. At Christmas time, Mary and Margaret, whom we consider our honorary members even though they are not from the Shore, gave us a party, which was one of the most memorable events of the year. In the spring, we gave a juke-box dance in the Rec. Everyone had fun, and the dance put money in our treasury.

Our officers for this year have been Norma Gladding, president; Kitty Beale Latimer, vice-president; Sue Nelson, secretary-treasurer; and Billie Jane Barber, reporter.

Northern Neck Club

*"Sometimes I stop and wonder
 What the next world's going to be.
 But St. Peter needn't worry
 When I cash in my check,
 For my soul will stay forever, in
 The good old Northern Neck."*

YES, the Northern Neck is a place which captures one's heart when he visits or lives there. Just what is it? Where is it? It is a strip of land between the wide, blue Potomac and the mighty Rappahannock, and it is just like millions of other places which people call "God's country."

Our club welcomed five new members this year: Barbara English, Nancy Tigner, Maxine Dize, Jane Hudson, and Johanna Biddlecomb. We are proud of our Longwood alumnae of the Northern Neck. They recently organized an alumnae chapter. Their capable officers are Mrs. Robert

B. Delano of Warsaw, president; Mrs. John R. Beale of Kinsale, vice-president; Miss Helen Hardin of Tappahannock, secretary; Mrs. Paul Welch of Downings, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur Packett of Warsaw, historian.

The events that made this year an enjoyable one were our traditional hamburger roast to welcome the freshmen, the bingo party sponsored by the alumnae chapter, our juke-box dance, and our picnic at the Longwood estate.

If anyone wants to see our faces shine with pride, just mention the name "Charlie Hop." Charlie Hop is our faithful adviser and cherished friend.

Our club officers for this year were the following: Peggy Wilson, president; Ann Lamb, vice-president; Jeanne Mercer, secretary-treasurer; and Ann Conley, reporter.

The Richmond Club

IN September the Richmond Club was pleased to welcome many charming freshmen from our own city. We had met most of them at our tea at Thalhimer's just before school started, when we gave them an insight into life at Longwood College. We entertained our freshmen at a picnic in the fall, when we renewed our acquaintances and caught up on summer events. Picnics held at Longwood estate in the fall and spring are traditional with us.

One of our main purposes is to interest Richmond high-school girls in coming to Longwood College. This we have done by inviting them to the college on week-ends, by having parties in Richmond in their honor, and by individual correspondence.

Our club enables us Richmonders to have a closer relationship with our alumnae at home. Each spring several Richmond Club members are invited to attend the alumnae picnic held in Richmond. When our alumnae are on our campus, we act as hostesses, showing them the new buildings and introducing them to our new students.

During the Christmas holidays the alumnae entertained us with a delightful Christmas tea at Miller and Rhoads. This tea was also attended by several high-school seniors, who are prospective Longwood students. We instilled in them the friendly spirit of our school, and they were more enthusiastic than ever about coming to Longwood.

Our juke-box dances, one in the fall and one in the spring, provided a good time for everyone as well as a tidy sum for our treasury. We were fortunate this year in having more publicity for Richmond girls than ever before in the Richmond newspapers.

Our guiding light through this successful year was Kathleen Cover, our faculty sponsor. Our officers for the year were the following: Charlotte Williams, president; Barbara Caskey, vice-president; Dot Dunford, secretary-treasurer; and Virginia McLean, reporter.

Southwest Virginia Club

THE Southwest Virginia Club is a new one here, having been formed in early December. After the announcement that all Southwest Virginia students would meet after supper one night, it was found that there were sixty-eight of us coming from those beautiful mountains.

The juke-box dance in February, featuring the sensational Apple Dance, was the opening social event of our first year at Longwood College.

Officers elected at our first meeting were the following: Frances Creger, president; Ann Moseley, vice-president; Peg Peery, secretary; and Eleanor Weddle, treasurer. Miss Emily Barksdale, a true and loyal Southwest Virginian, was made our adviser, and during the year she proved to be our faithful guide.

To be a happy club one must have some objectives or purposes. Loving our section of Virginia and our school, we set forth these purposes: to interest other girls from Southwest Virginia in the college, to work closely with the alumnae groups, and to have fun together.

Although we have been slow in starting, our purposes have been realized. It was a pleasure to show the various high-school groups around the campus. They were quite thrilled over the new science hall and dormitory. And oh, that maple furniture that the frosh have!

The tea at Easter in Roanoke for the high-school seniors was a great success. With annuals and catalogues in abundance no entertainment was needed. Best of all, though, was our picnic at Longwood House. There everyone really got acquainted. Between bites of hot dogs and sips of "coke," one could catch words like these: "Oh, you live in—! Do you know so-and-so? He's my uncle. Sure is a small world."

This year has been a fine one, but next year holds promise for a bigger and better Southwest Virginia Club.

French and Spanish Clubs

THIS has been a wonderful year for all of us in the Spanish Club. It has really been fun to work and play together under the direction of our capable president, Anne McMullan, and our sponsor, Miss Barksdale.

Our regular monthly meetings have been packed full of songs, skits, and poems. Also we had a Spanish Club booth at Circus with some ever-famous peanuts. Then arrived the Christmas fiesta complete with pinatas, nacamientos, bull fighters, singing, and dancing. Our climax for the year was our thrilling Spanish movie! With the help of our Puerto Rican friends—Elba, Isaac, Edna, and Olga—this has been a successful year in the Spanish Club.

Work for "Le Cercle Francais" began vigorously in September and has continued throughout another successful year.

We welcomed Madeliene Bigot from France, who led us in a study of her home. Miss Draper, our able faculty adviser, also has given us both pleasure and instruction.

"Le Cercle Francais" has encouraged leadership and cooperation among its members this year through participation in programs at the meetings, planning our circus booth, and giving a French movie and a sing for the student body. One of the gayest festivities of our year was the joint Christmas party given with the Spanish Club.

Our officers were the following: Dolores Hoback, president; Maria Jackson, vice-president; Helen Tanner, secretary; Barbara White, treasurer; and Celeste Bishop, reporter.

Home Economics Club

THE Longwood Home Economics Club, a member of the college-club section of the American Home Economics Association, has had another very eventful year under the leadership of our officers: Jane Seward, president; Gladys Savedge, vice-president; Lillian Shelton, secretary; Frances Thomas, treasurer; Elsie Rae Page, reporter; and Miss Fern Staggs, adviser.

In the spring of the preceding year our heads swelled as our own Evelyn Farrier became president of the Virginia State College Home Economics Club. We were also fortunate to have Frances Thomas represent us at the American Home Economics Association Convention held in Boston, Massachusetts, in July, 1950. She brought back many helpful and interesting suggestions.

In October we gave a tea at Miss Staggs' home to welcome our new members. December was our busiest month with plum puddings and fruit cakes to be made and sold; a basket to be prepared for our family, which we adopted also. Evelyn went to the Province Workshop in Huntington, Pennsylvania; and Miss Staggs, our adviser, attended the White House Conference in Washington, D. C.

In March we attended the meeting of the State Home Economics Club in Roanoke, Virginia. We also gave a tea for the Farmville, Cumberland, and Worsham F. H. A. members, March 17. During the year we sponsored two juke-box dances in the "Rec" and kept our programs light, informative, and interesting. The climax of our year was a banquet held in the tea room in recognition of our seniors. At this dinner they became members of the A. H. E. A.

Commercial Club

SINCE 1939 the Commercial Club has been a growing organization, having as its purposes the advancement of learning and interest in the field of Business Education and the promotion of understanding and fellowship among the members of the club.

The club consists of two classes of membership, active and honorary. Students who major in Business Education are active members. Faculty members of the Business Department are honorary members and form an Advisory Board, from which a sponsor is elected each year.

In October the club had its customary booth in Alpha Kappa Gamma Circus. Balloons with each buyer's name painted on them were a big success. We missed our Christmas party in December but had one instead on Washington's Birthday. Also for social pleasure we had a banquet in April and a picnic in May.

The club sponsored a juke-box dance in March. Our big undertaking was a project on what styles of clothing women have worn in business since the nineteenth century. An exhibit of these styles was displayed in the library. We learned much and had fun.

Officers of the organization are Betty J. Jones, president; Mary Minta Crowder, vice-president; Betty Lou Harman, secretary; Jacqueline Ann Moody, treasurer; Max Acree, reporter. Mr. Christy Snead acted as sponsor. We are indebted to him for his help and kindly spirit. We are also grateful to all members of the Advisory Board for their participation in our many activities.

Madrigal Singers

EVERY Tuesday at four o'clock faint sounds of harmony could be heard coming from Room 21. Many hours have been spent in working out difficult Madrigal music.

The Madrigal singers are made up of ten carefully selected voices. We had only eight of our old members back: Winston Johnson, Sarah Harvie, Joyce Adams, Andrea Adams, Charlotte K. Jones, Bobbie Pollard, Ann Moody, and Jane Allen. Our vacancies were filled by Dolly Wells and Mary Thomas. Since most of our music is three-part a capella, a keen sense of music is needed.

Our first appearance was in the Christmas Concert held in the Longwood dining room. We sang also in the chapel at Hampden Sydney during the holiday season. Later in December the Madrigals sang in the program given for the annual "White Christmas." The Christmas theme was carried out through the music of familiar carols. As has been the custom for many years, the Madrigals sang several numbers during the Yuletide banquet. Later the group led the student body in singing carols.

This year we invited a number of underclassmen to work with us and serve as alternates for our regular members. After a year of apprenticeship, these girls will be ready to fill the vacancies left by Charlotte, Bobbie, Joyce, and Andrea, our senior members.

In the Spring Concert we sang a number of religious as well as secular numbers. Madrigal singers closed a very successful year by singing for the baccalaureate service.

Much credit and thanks go to our director, Dr. John Molnar. His able leadership has brought us through a very fine year.

College

WE, the members of the College Choir, are proud of the accomplishments of the past year. These have been gained through the able direction of our leader, Dr. John Molnar, and the hard work and enthusiasm of those who belong to this organization.

In the fall, much time was spent in preparation for our joint Christmas Concert with the Hampden-Sydney Glee Club. This concert was presented in the dining hall of Longwood College, which was beautifully decorated with pine, candelabra, and two all-white Christmas trees. Following this, we led the entire student body in caroling in town. The concert was repeated at Hampden-Sydney the following week. The next occasion on our calendar of special events came on March 1, when we toured to Arlington to perform with the Arlington Symphony Orchestra. The success of this concert was very inspiring. On April 7 we gave our Spring Concert jointly with the Hampden-Sydney Glee Club.

Our officers for the year were Jean Carter Watkins, president; Ann Moody, secretary; and May Henry Sadler, treasurer. We are grateful to have as our sponsor, Miss Virgilia Bugg, whose interest inspired us.

Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship

“TO know Him and to make Him known” is the motto of the Longwood Christian Fellowship. There are chapters on other college and university campuses all over the United States. These groups are composed of Christians of all denominations who seek to serve Christ on their campuses.

We met weekly on Thursday afternoons for group Bible study. The first part of the year was spent in making an extensive study of the life of Peter. We saw what a difference Christ made in Peter's life. After thus becoming acquainted with Peter, we studied the epistle which he wrote. Daily prayer meetings were held to support the work of the group.

Inspiration and encouragement were received by attending the conference at Roslyn in March. Groups from Virginia and North Carolina were present. We had special speakers during the year. In the fall we had a Christian layman from South Hill, Dr. Joseph Turner, who led us in two Sunday afternoon meetings. Also during the year we had Miss Eileen O'Rourke, of the China Inland Mission, show us a film entitled “Hope for China.” This greatly broadened our vision of missions. Miss Anne Childs, regional staff worker, made us a number of visits during the year. Her advice, prayers, and suggestions strengthened us. We were grateful for the loyal support of Miss Dorothy Daniel, who served very capably as our adviser.

Our officers for this year were Peggy Hoover, Barbara Cotton, Virginia Manville, and Lucille Thompson.

Westminster Fellowship

THIS year the work of the Westminster Fellowship began with a reception given to welcome the new students of both colleges. The addition of Virginia Barksdale as pastor's assistant gave us a very "special" adviser to start the year with. Mrs. Frank Crawford, Dr. McIlwaine Thompson of the College Church, Hampden-Sydney, and the Rev. J. R. Kennedy, our pastor, have also acted as able advisers. Under the leadership of Mary Crawford, president; Gene Randolph, vice-president; Ginny McLean, secretary; and Sally Brickman, treasurer, this year has been one of inspiration, fun, and fellowship.

On Sunday evenings we have had a variety of interesting programs, including a talk by Sam Brust, a Brazilian student at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond.

During the year Barbara Cotton edited the West-Fell News, a bi-weekly news and editorial sheet. One issue of Varsity Views, Synod's Westminster Fellowship paper, was also published by our group.

Among our social activities have been a picnic, a juke-box dance, and our monthly supper meetings, held alternately the first Sunday of each month at Hampden-Sydney and in the Farmville Presbyterian Church.

Another highlight of the year was the Fourth Quadrennial Youth Convention in Auburn, Alabama, between Christmas and New Year's. Twelve of our members attended, among 1000 delegates and church leaders from all over the country.

The second semester saw the group sponsoring a Sunday afternoon school for the Oak Grove Church, and conducting the nursery at the Farmville Church during the Sunday morning church service. Through these projects and our wonderful meetings, and with the help of our officers and advisers, we feel that throughout the year we have grown spiritually as well as numerically.

Wesley Foundation

OUR year began well with a banquet for the freshmen. At this time the new students were introduced to the officers of the Wesley Club: president, Jo Ann McCombs; vice-president, Andrea Adams; secretary, Bobbie Dodd; treasurer, Pat Taylor; student secretary, Marian Hallock. Mr. Myers, our friend and pastor, spoke a few words of welcome.

Every month members of our group attended State Student conferences at various colleges throughout the state. At Christmas time many were on hand for the big party in the gym. Often we were fortunate to have speakers from the University of Virginia to talk to our group. Any Saturday night girls gathered at the center and had a taffy pull or a sing, or just sat around and talked. Our conference in March was really inspiring with speakers from Duke and other attractions.

During this year we have really been busy with our newly organized drama guild. We even presented a number of skits for our programs. Also the choir has added greatly to the evening services.

With such a fine start there is no reason why next year can't be the best year the Wesley Foundation has ever had on this campus. As every year draws to a close, we feel joy for the friendship and fellowship shared, but sorrow for the loss of our seniors, whose leadership and guidance we shall miss. The Wesley Foundation wishes them success in years to come.

Baptist Student Union

*"B. S. U.—How much you've meant to me, Fellowship with folks so full of glee.
 Serious times and wholesome fun,
 Listen, folks, we've just begun
 To tell you all the things we've done . . ."*

YES, the Baptist Student Union has experienced a year just packed full of inspiring events, beginning in September with the Pre-School Retreat at Camp Green Bay with Rev. Johannes Arndt, German Youth Leader, as guest. Then there was our playlet for the freshmen, presented with the "Spirit of B. S. U." Later came many events: Miss Slater's visit, the Youth Revival with the Rev. Jack Noffsinger and Mr. John Houghton, the memorable weekend at our State Convention at Bluefield with our bus load of girls, and of course, the FUMA boys—Scott Hutton saying, "Here I stand." We remember Student Night at Christmas, our candy-making party and our Carol Service at the jail, Cheerful Cherub Week and our trying not to gripe, "June in January" Open House for Mr. Winders and Mr. Gow. Then followed Vocational Emphasis Week with Rippy leading the ATOMS so that we wouldn't be LOPH. Also came Freshman Week and Nicky, the Local Spring Retreat at Longwood Estate, and the State Spring Retreat at Williamsburg and then—Ridgecrest. These we remember as highlights of our year in B. S. U.

Our faithful leaders, Peakie and Mr. Bruner, never failed to challenge and support us. We are grateful for their guidance. Our president this year has been Max Acree. Other officers were Shirley Roberts, Gladys Savedge, Elizabeth Stone, Page Joyner, Annie Lee Owen, Eleanor Weddle, Ann Crowder, Sarah Dickerson, Joyce Gatling, Frances Harper, Dot Burnett, Kitty Moore, Dee Hoover, Barbara Booker, and Dolly Horne.

Newman Club

OUR club began its new year on the Longwood campus with an invitation from Father MacCarthy to all the new Catholic students to join the club. Later on, one of our first social activities was a dinner which was held in the former Blackstone College, and at which were present many of the young people of Blackstone.

Martha Sanford presided over our meetings during the first semester. Because Martha did not expect to return, we elected Olga Rodriguez to serve as president until the end of the year. Betty Hoffman is the secretary-treasurer of the club.

Father MacCarthy, who was busily working on plans and preparations for the church being built here in Farmville and the one to be built in Blackstone, could not be with us, and Father Silk capably helped us solve our problems and carry on our discussions. At these meetings, held every Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, we discussed and studied the Bible and the Catechism, and were further instructed in the mysteries of the Holy Mass. Several times the Newman Club from Hampden-Sydney met with us here at Longwood to join us in our discussions.

During the course of the year we were invited several times to have dinner with Father MacCarthy and Father Silk at their home in Blackstone. For the regular spring activity we planned a picnic to be held at Longwood Estate. With this we completed our year. We look forward to next year, when we shall meet in the recreation rooms of our new church.

Orchesis

OUR dance year crowded itself into one semester as far as club events were concerned. We started slowly, treading lightly until our first buying spree. We bought new jersey costumes for the second time in the club's history. These prepared us for our two major events, which coincided—Recital and Dance Day.

We visited schools, demonstrating and teaching high-school girls in Victoria, Kenbridge, Buckingham, South Hill, and Chase City. It was an experience in itself, watching the changing expressions on eager faces.

Preparation for the recital held on March 17 was a lengthy process, but the result proved to be most successful. We included both group and solo parts: "Greeting," "Folk Sing," "Folk Walk," "Doodle Portraits," "Phobias," "I Have a Willowy Soul." We also did a small portion of the stirring novel—"The Wise In Heart."

March, also, saw us mooning into space about our performance at the Mosque for the Southern Music Educator's Association. We had to scale our physical selves to fit Kate Greenway proportions for a dancing class on a plantation between 1810 and 1840. We were quite proud of our pre-classic dance suite, which exemplified harpsichord days.

Then came May Day on May 5, and we turned dance's pages farther back. We found a legendary being in Edith Duma as she portrayed the Czech peasant girl dancing the polka for the first time. As members of a Paris ballet troupe with a dancing master, we won everybody's admiration.

We completed a most successful year under the leadership of our charming adviser, Mrs. Emily K. Landrum, and of our capable officers: Marian Beckner, president; secretary-treasurer, Edith Duma; and costume chairman, Jean Ridenour.

Cotillion Club

THIS year has been one of the most successful in the history of the Cotillion Club, the social dance organization on our campus.

In the fall, twenty-one bids were given to upperclassmen, and in the spring, ninety-five freshmen were asked to become members. For a week those accepting bids proudly wore the traditional yellow ribbons around their ankles. But they were full-fledged members only after they had endured a week of "goating," our period of initiation, which was held in the spring for girls accepting bids in both the fall and spring semesters.

Cotillion members lived a life of leisure during goat week. The goats kept them well supplied with snacks and provided maid service as well as good entertainment.

Our annual Cotillion Club dance was held on April 21, 1951, and featured Claude Thornhill. The gym was beautifully decorated by our enthusiastic goats. Attractive programs were given each member as she walked in the figure. We made the week-end an even greater one with our party and other events. This was the first year in our history in which any entertainment other than the formal dance has been provided for members and their dates, and we hope we have begun a tradition, because our programs were successes.

The Cotillion Club progressed during the year under the capable leadership of our president, Jeanne Farmer. Charlotte Williams was our figure leader at our annual dance. Jill Pifer served ably as our business manager, with Mildred Evans as our efficient secretary-treasurer. Mr. Boyd Coyner was our faculty adviser.

Athletic Association

ATHLETICS is a major part of Longwood. The new students of '50-'51 immediately caught the enthusiasm and interest displayed by upperclassmen and joined in the activities with the true Longwood spirit. A Sports Demonstration was held at the beginning of the year to acquaint new students with the sports on campus. The following pages contain a glimpse of these activities and the successful year that we have had.

The council wishes to thank all for their splendid sportsmanship and interest. To Miss Iler we extend our deep appreciation for her services as our indispensable adviser.

Longwood's varsity basketball team saw a successful year under the leadership of Rachael Peters as captain and Shirley Livesay as manager.

Class volleyball games ran close on the heels of basketball. Girls hurried to complete their eight practices needed to be eligible to play for their classes. Managers of volleyball this year were Helen Egerton and Peggy Harris.

Archery came with spring time. Girls spent hours on the A. A. Field, bow and arrow in hand, shooting for the "bull's-eye." The manager of spring archery events was Nancy Gillie.

Fine sportsmanship was exhibited by both colors in the archery matches and volleyball games. The winners proudly collected points toward putting their colors on the cup.

In this review of sports, mention should be made of the duties of the A. A. Council. Included on the Council are the Executive Committee and the managers of all sports, both varsity and class teams. These managers work with the captains of individual teams to see that activities are carried through as scheduled.

Varsity Hockey, Tennis

THE first sport in the fall was hockey. The varsity team spent many hours at hard practice on the A. A. Field and was rewarded by winning a game over Norfolk Division and scoring a tie with Roanoke College. Ann Biddlecomb, Clara Borum, Nell Bradshaw, and Sue Webb were chosen to represent Longwood at the Allied East West Hockey Tournament at Sweet Briar in October. Ann, who served as captain of Longwood's varsity team, was chosen captain of the Allied East Team.

Near the end of this year's calendar, we found the tennis courts full of tennis enthusiasts. Nancey Gillie and Clara Borum are to be congratulated on being semi-finalists in the fall singles.

Blazer Awards

“WE will put our colors on the cup,” sang the Red and Whites and the Green and Whites! Competition was heavy, for every class hoped to have its colors hanging on the traditional color cup for all to see. Congratulations to the proud winners!

The outstanding individual award of the year was the presentation of blazers to seniors. The white blazer recognized outstanding participation in a variety of sports; the blue blazers stood for noted participation in one or two sports.

H₂O Club

THE H₂O Club began the year by electing Miss Rebecca Brockenbrough, a new member of the Physical Education staff, as faculty adviser. She brought many new ideas and proved a real leader in our many activities.

In the fall the club chose Marian Beckner and Jean Ridenour to head its annual swimming pageant. It was through their hard work and efforts, with the cooperation of all club members, that our show was a success. The theme was built around Christmas symbols. Through water-ballet figures and special routines we illustrated snow flakes, Christmas trees, poinsettias, jingle bells, and candy canes. There were the traditional fancy divers, clowns, and a Santa Claus to entertain between acts. The finale was the formation of an H₂O with candles. We wish to give many thanks to the non-members who worked with us.

In the spring the Virginia State Inter-collegiate Telegraphic Swimming Meet was sponsored by Longwood College; however, only Madison College and we took part. Then in March our student swimming instructor, Nancy Walker, worked with the Red Cross in preparing us for an instructor's course.

In April the Convention of the Virginia Athletic Federation of College Women was held at Longwood College. For entertainment the club was asked to present its pageant a second time. This was another of our successes. The pageant increased our treasury to such an extent that we had a formal banquet at Longwood Estate. This was the first of its kind, and we hope it will be repeated in the future.

Nancy Gillie, our president, and Jeanne Gilman, secretary-treasurer, proved very capable leaders. We were proud of them and of our club.

THE Monogram Club's main purpose is to stimulate interest in sports and to recognize athletic ability, scholarship, and sportsmanship. We select as members those girls who are most outstanding in furthering this purpose.

In October new members were elected into the club. They included Jean Ridenour, Marian Beckner, Nancy Walker, Shirley Livesay, Nell Dalton, Edith Kennon, Eleanor Weddell, Helen Egerton, Erma Poarch, Bunnie Ricks, Isaac Velazquez, Jesse Carson, Rachael Peters, Shirley Bloxton, Dot Dunford, Charlotte Williams, Bobbie Pollard, Illene Russell, Ann Biddlecomb, Marjorie Hood, and Peggy Harris. Our initiation ceremony for them was held in the cabin at Longwood Estate and was followed by a picnic supper. The following day, old and new members wore the club's colors, blue and white, and their monograms.

During Color Rush we were busy selling red and green hockey sticks to each class. This increased the enthusiasm of each person as she sported her colors to the hockey games and races. Dot Dunford and Shirley Bloxton were responsible for making our circus booth a huge success. The booth was decorated in blue and white with the L C monogram in the background.

On February 17 we sponsored "Red and White Day"; on March 15 we sponsored "Green and White Day." On these days we sold hearts and shamrocks to the class members. Indeed, class spirit grew.

The cabin at Longwood was again our responsibility, and we found the organizations signing up for its use on the weekends.

The old members included Marian Higgs, president; Patty Walker, secretary-treasurer; Sue Brewbaker, Mary Crowder, Nancye Gillie, Betsy Gravely, Anne Lynch, Romine Mahood, and June Ritchie. Miss Iler served as our helpful adviser.

Men's Basketball

THE thirteen men composing the Longwood College Pioneers have attempted to bring participation in one of the outstanding collegiate sports within the grasp of the male students of this college. Small in number, the team has played under somewhat adverse conditions and in many games opposed teams far above them in rating; nevertheless, they have sought in both victory and defeat to adhere to fair and sportsmanlike conduct in all of their activities.

Although most of their games resulted in defeats, the Pioneers exhibited good training and comparative strength when, in challenging the Medical College of Virginia Medicos in the second game of the Pioneer season, they accomplished what many of the Medicos' opponents failed to do in the ensuing season—they held the Medical College team to a maximum of eighty points—a record not equalled by numerous larger teams. This same strength they utilized in their contests with the Ferrum Junior College and Lynchburg College Junior Varsity teams and came within a few points of victory.

The team profited in the 1950-1951 season by the addition of several new men, among them Bob Williams, senior transfer student from Elon College; Jerry Shevick, Duke University graduate and Pioneer co-captain; Bill Overbey and Bill Carter, forwards; and Johnny Peace and Forest Pillow, towering centers. These men were supported by players of former Pioneer experience: Ned Orange, co-captain center; Jimmy Thompson, Harold Hutter, James Clark, and Shep Elmore, guards; and Bobby Bradshaw and Lester Smallwood, forwards. The Pioneers sustained the loss of six of their best players during the season and terminated the season with only seven members.

Sigma Sigma Sigma

Founded Longwood College, 1898

WITH fading suntans and memories of a wonderful vacation, the Sigmas were back together. Betty Mac and Caroline were telling us of their experiences at the Sigma National Convention at Edgewater Beach, Chicago. We were all proud of Caroline, who was one of the two pledges initiated at the convention.

Jones and Bobbie were chosen for Who's Who; Jean R. was elected Queen of Junior Dance, and Pat was an attendant, as well as dance chairman.

Again we were proud of our May Court material. Our own Charlotte Jones was May Queen with Charlotte W., Jean R., and Margaret Taylor as her attendants. Hilda was chairman of May Day.

Fall rushing brought us our prize, Margaret Taylor. Spring rushing was really a big event. We were very lucky. The wonderful pledges were Nancy Adkins, Betty Benton, Fifi Carter, Blanton Ferguson, Molly Hersman, June Horton, Liz Hoskins, Nancy Huff, June Johns, and Nat Lancaster.

School was over again. Before we said goodbye to everyone, we gave our thanks to our officers: Betty Mac, president; Mary Jane, vice-president; Betty Jones, treasurer; Marian, recording secretary; and Connie, corresponding secretary. Most of all we thank Miss Kate Trent, our friend and adviser, whom we all love.

Kappa Delta

Founded Longwood College, 1897

OUR wonderful vacation was hardly gone when we Kappa Deltas started a whirlwind of activities under the capable guidance of Helen Connelly, president; Nancy Walthall, vice-president; Helen Smith, secretary; Minta Critzer, treasurer; Ann Moody, assistant-treasurer; and Maria Jackson, editor.

Which of our chapter's "wheels" shall we mention first? Ginny McLean and Caskey were co-chairmen for the sophomore circus stunt in October, and Maria and Caskey represented their classes on the court. Lucy Page represented the sophomore class on the Student Government Council. Pi Delta Epsilon, of which Mary Leigh and Jean Smith are officers, extended bids to four of us, and Kappa Delta Pi invited three among us to become members. Becky was treasurer of the junior class, and "Bootie" served as secretary of the Athletic Association. "Hoey" was president of the French Circle.

Alpha is proud of its new pledges! Barbara Caskey and Rebecca Mann joined us in the fall. In the spring, we welcomed Nancy Driskill, Betty Collier, Janet Wiggins, Sarah Leatherman, Betty Frances Gillette, Mary Denny Wilson, Pat Altwegg, Mary Elva Robinson and Frances William as sisters.

The chapter room looked lovely for the senior dance. Our thanks go to Bob and "Hoey," who went to the woods and brought back a beautiful tree and some greens for decorations.

Honorable mention should go at this point to our recently tapped Alpha Kappa Gamma members: Mary Leigh, Jean Smith, and Maria Jackson. Highest praise and deepest thanks are due also to Mrs. Fredrick Morse, our province president, to our alumnae, and to our sponsors, who helped us to make this year one of the best ever for Kappa Delta.

Alpha Sigma Alpha

Founded Longwood College, 1901

AFTER summer's fun and frolic, we scooped the dust from the chapter room and began the year with many plans. By fall we had ushered in Jo Ann Yow and Eddie Ann Abbitt, whom we were glad to have. We were twenty-two strong then. And all over the campus ASA gals were found peeping around hockey sticks, student government gavels, and basket balls—receiving honors and offices, too. Agnew, Romine, and "B. B." served as president, vice-president, and secretary of Student Government. Several ASA's were tapped by AKG, presided over by Romine Mahood, and Who's Who took some of our seniors. Mary Brame did a wonderful job as general chairman of our Founders' Day banquet, November 15, and the whole affair was thoroughly delightful.

Christmas found our room bursting with decorations and looking the spirit of Yuletide for our Christmas party, which was made a happy affair by providing clothes, toys, and food for a needy family.

The new semester found us again full of rushing plans. We were happy to gain Mary Evelyn Bennett, Elizabeth Browning, Gaynelle Davidson, Peggy Jones, Jackie Lackey, Jean Pearce, and Patsy Sanford. Then there was the cabin party in April. What a time! And our annual State Day was held here at Longwood. May Day was represented by Romine as maid of honor, and Kemp and Fran on the court.

Our thanks go to our leaders — Ann Kemp, our president; Shirley Livesay and Nancey Gillie, vice-presidents; Millie Evans, secretary; and Betty Scott Borkey, treasurer. Again we extend our heartfelt gratitude to our Miss Wall for her words of counsel and cheer. Our year would not be complete without her inspiration.

Zeta Tau Alpha

Founded Longwood College, 1898

SEPTEMBER found nineteen Zetas eagerly cleaning the room. Each had numerous experiences to tell, especially Mary B. Smith, who had represented us at the Zeta Convention at Mackinac Island, Michigan. There she met Zetas from eighty-nine chapters all over the United States.

The first big project of our school year was fall rushing. We went to work with vigor and proudly claimed Jean Jinnett and Janice Pinkard.

Zeta began a new tradition this year—a party for each sorority on campus. Cokes and nabs, ice cream and ginger ale, a “coffee-pot,” and charades made a big success. We happily welcomed with another party Miss Leola Wheeler, Zeta’s former adviser, back from Hawaii. It seemed like old times to us all.

Christmas brought fun for everyone with a beautifully decorated room to show our dates at senior dance reception. Our cheer was so exhilarating that we decided to spread that cheer by preparing a Christmas basket for a needy family.

We had lost some sisters, new and old, at the first of the year, and we regretfully said good-bye to Kappy Bishop, who transferred the second semester to the Medical College of Virginia. Spring rushing brought us six new Zeta sisters: Sara Lou Bradshaw, Mary Ann Breslin, Mason Moore, Ann McCracken, Jean Newcomb, and Ethel Straw. No one could have been prouder than we.

In April our Mother-Daughter banquet, followed by a cabin party, was held. How pleasant it was to see Mother share in a Zeta tradition!

For a happy year we thank our president, Janie; vice-president, Mary Jo; secretary, Garbee; treasurer, Frances Creger; historian, Mary B.; ritual chairman, Claudia; rush chairman, Sadie; and Pan-Hellenic representative, Margaret.

Pi Kappa Sigma

Founded Michigan State Normal School, 1894

IN September of 1950, we all returned to our Longwood campus; the summer had ended. Those first few weeks were busy ones, with cleaning the chapter room and making it ready for the fall rush parties. We were thrilled with the girls we won: Betty, Billie, Higgs, Carolyn, Mo, and Pritch. We were happy, too, to have Connie Blankenship, a transfer from Madison.

We really beamed when Buddy Walker stepped out before the crowd as ringmaster at Circus. We beamed again when she was chosen as an attendant on the court of the Queen of Hearts at Junior dance.

November 17, our Founders' Day, we celebrated with the traditional ceremony and breakfast. We also wore our colors to commemorate the day Pi Kap was born.

Our seniors made us proud, as Sue Brew was recognized by Alpha Kappa Gamma; Betsy, Mary, Sue, Lynch, and Egerton were awarded blazers. Lynch and Betsy were chosen to appear in Who's Who in American Colleges, and Higgs was elected co-chairman of May Day. We were happy, too, when Lynch, Betsy, Sue Brew, Anne Mitchell, Frances Turner, and Murphy were chosen as representatives on May Court.

In March we welcomed to our sisterhood "Boop," Stokes, Moneda, Betty Lou, Nell, Barbara, Turner, and Jeanne. We are proud of them.

At the end of a wonderful year we bade a sad farewell to our seniors. With sincere gratitude we paid tribute to our beloved adviser, Miss Olive Iler; our patrons, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Graham; and to our officers of the year: Mary Crowder, president; Helen Egerton, vice-president; Virginia Westbrook, recording secretary; Patty Walker, corresponding secretary; Peg Peery, treasurer; and Sue Brewbaker, Pan-Hellenic representative.

Alpha Sigma Tau

Founded Michigan State Normal School, 1899

SEPTEMBER brought to the Alpha Sigma Taus much excitement and talk of summer festivities. Everyone was once again together, we thought, until we took a second look and found our numbers greatly decreased by graduation and by matrimony. Still the remaining AST's were full of brilliant ideas and plans for the year.

Out of these plans came our first big event of the year, fall rushing, which brought us four new Taus: Margie Hall, Helen Castros, Kitty Hamlet, and Frances Thomas. Next we were pleased to have as our guest Mrs. Robinson, our national president, whom we all admired. We soon began making preparations for our Founders' Day celebration and banquet. What a success!

Before leaving for Christmas holidays, we had our party. We had fun singing carols and exchanging gifts. Decorating the tree had been fun, and the chapter room really looked lovely for the senior dance intermission party.

After Christmas we found ourselves re-decorating. Fresh paint and draperies did wonders for our room. We were pleased. Even more we were pleased with our sweet new AST's: Anita Belle Bagley, Lou Beavers, Joanna Biddlecomb, Elizabeth Boswell, Lois Cramer, Patricia Donnally, Adrian Jennings, Betty Ann Johnston, Nancy Purdum, Margaret Steele, Demetra Steger, Jane Tick, and Lee Wood. Spring found all of us tramping to the cabin for a week-end frolic: no sleep but much fun, eating and playing.

On May Court, we were proud to claim Kitty Hamlet and Margaret Steele. My, they looked pretty!

In June we reluctantly bade farewell to our beloved seniors: Ann Biddlecomb, Gerry Newman, and Emma Mae Pittard. Thanks go to our leaders: Emma Mae, our president; Sally Brickman, vice-president; Ann Biddlecomb, secretary; and Gerry, treasurer. We hold deep affection and gratitude for our adviser, Miss Bedford.

Theta Sigma Upsilon

Founded Kansas State Teachers College, 1921

SEPTEMBER of this year found us an eager group of Thetas, ready to start a full, happy year. We missed those sisters who had graduated in June, but fall rushing brought us two wonderful new sisters: "Chris" Davis and Fran Harper.

In October, we won the Scholarship Plaque for the fourth consecutive year, and it became our very own "for keeps." We celebrated Christmas with a party in the Chapter room and sent a large box of toys to the children in the Polio Ward at Medical College of Virginia.

This year we were a group of busy girls sharing in campus activities of various types. Georgia Bailey was business manager of the VIRGINIAN; Fran Harper served as business manager of the Colomade. June Foreman was secretary of the Y. W. C. A. Evelyn Farrier attended the Regional Home Economics Club, and we were overjoyed when she was elected president of the State Club. Jane Seward was the president of our local Home Ec. Club. Max Acree was very busy with May Day, serving as business manager this year. We were very proud of Anne Burnette, who was treasurer of the senior class and was recognized by Alpha Kappa Gamma in the fall. "Gin" Spencer served this year as president of the Y. W. C. A. and was elected to be included in "Who's Who." She is also a member of Alpha Kappa Gamma.

After spring rushing we happily welcomed twelve new pledges: Mary Bennett, Margie Davis, Maxine Dize, Marjorie Fore, Virginia McGlothlin, Bessie Matthews, Diane Murray, Gay Power, Barbara Robertson, Faith Smith, Betty Stanley, and Billie Tomlinson.

Our very efficient officers this year were the following: president, Georgia Bailey; vice-president, June Foreman; recording secretary, Branchy Fristoe; treasurer, Max Acree; editor, Virginia Spencer; and Pan-Hellenic representative, Lillian Shelton. These girls made this one of the best years of our lives. Our greatest appreciation goes also to our ever understanding adviser, Mrs. Josephine Phillips, whose help and enthusiasm helped us along the way.

Delta Sigma Epsilon

Founded Miami University, 1914

SEPTEMBER again! A happy day it was when, once again, the Delta Sigs greeted each other with their great summer adventures. Eloise and Liz were just bursting with news and excitement from Conclave. Our National Founders' Day ritual was held in the chapter room September 24 with a party afterward.

We were very proud of our officers for the year. They were the following: president, Eloise Hodges; vice-president, Frances Ann Ramsey; recording secretary, Mary Anna Oliver; corresponding secretary, Virginia Dare Woody; and treasurer, Liz Stone. Besides our officers we had the wonderful guidance of Miss Winnie Hiner, our sponsor. No one could have been sweeter or more thoughtful than she.

Fall rushing brought us Paige Bunn, Joyce Gatling, and Audra Hawkins. To show our new sisters how happy we were, we gave them a hat party in the chapter room. It was a great success.

Our room was so pretty for the Christmas party that we started to leave the decorations up all year. There were surprises for everyone. After Christmas we struggled through exam week. With all this behind us, we started a new semester. We were delighted with spring rushing and our ten new pledges: Virginia Berry, Nellie Lucy, Ann Mallory, Sue Oliver, Jackie Palmer, Nancy Park, Shirley Roby, Mary Frances Spurlock, Wilma Spurlock, and Martha Wilson.

We were sorry to lose Jean Elliott, who left us at Christmas, but she is happily married now, and we wish her a very prosperous future. It looks as if everybody's fancy turned to love this year. Ann and Inez received VPI miniatures; Virginia Dare received a diamond; and Frances Ann was pinned.

This spring we celebrated our Alpha Psi Founders' Day in May. Now we reluctantly bid farewell to Eloise, Ann, Nancy H., Mary Anna, and Betsy. The rest of us will be back next year to continue our good times.

Tau Theta Pi

Founded Longwood College, 1950

TAU Theta Pi, a social fraternity for men on the campus, was organized last spring and is completing its first full year of activity.

Jimmy Thompson, Harold Hutter, Jimmy Clark, and Berman Scott composed a committee which had as its function the laying of the foundation for our fraternity. A constitution was drawn up and ratified. The following charter officers were elected: Ned Orange, president; Shep Elmore, vice-president; James Clark, secretary; and Berman Scott, treasurer. Mr. Norman O. Myers was chosen as our sponsor.

Our first problem upon returning to school in the fall was to find a club room. Dr. Lancaster came to our rescue by giving us the use of an unoccupied classroom, a room needing considerable renovation. Every Saturday afternoon during October and November found us putting our talents to work in the form of painting, cleaning, and supervising.

Fraternity members and their guests assembled at Longwood Estate on December 10 for our first formal banquet. Dr. Lancaster was our speaker for the occasion. The senior dance was held the same evening, and we continued our festivities in the college gym. Our chapter room was dedicated with an open-house party at intermission. That was a happy evening for all of us.

We held our first pledging and initiation ceremonies in January; the new members were officially welcomed as brothers on February 7. Our new brothers are the following: Lester Trout, Forest Pillow, Walter Slusher, Harold Griffin, Eric Robinson, and John Peace.

All of us feel that our first year was a success; we are looking forward to greater activities next year and a more purposeful future as brothers in Tau Theta Pi.

Acknowledgement

And so we say good-bye to Longwood and the senior class of 1951. Another year will come with new faces, new activities, new buildings, and a new editor and staff for the VIRGINIAN. To Betty Scott Borkey and Mary Crawford, next year's editor and business manager, we wish the same fine co-operation from their staff that this VIRGINIAN had.

We would like also to express gratitude to the following who have given their time and invaluable assistance to the publication of this book.

LYNCHBURG ENGRAVING COMPANY, Lynchburg, for their aid in drawing up the layout and art work. To Mr. Glover go our special thanks for his interest, advice, and friendship.

J. P. BELL COMPANY, Lynchburg, for printing our book, and especially Mr. W. L. Burton, whose helpful suggestions solved many of our problems.

FRED DUDLEY STUDIO, Lynchburg, because of the fine work in making our group and individual pictures.

MISS NANCY FOSTER for constructive criticism and helpful guidance as our literary adviser.

MISS VIRGINIA BEDFORD for her ideas and assistance in our art section.

THE STUDENT BODY, FACULTY, AND ADMINISTRATION, whose interest and enthusiasm gave us the incentive to work.

And last, but not least, go our deepest thanks to MR. T. A. McCORKLE, who has completed his twenty-seventh year as adviser to the VIRGINIAN staff. His patience and constant aid have endeared him to the staff and have made our work pleasant and enjoyable.

As the last page is finished, and every word is written, we cannot help sensing a small feeling of satisfaction in our work. It is our sincere hope that somewhere in these pages you will find cherished memories of a wonderful year spent at Farmville during 1950-'51.
